

OUR EXPERIENCE, YOUR SUCCESS!

At Fieldwork, we understand the unique difficulties of conducting research in far-reaching countries. Fieldwork Network's international division has been helping clients navigate these challenges since 2001.

We have built extensive relationships with field partners in every corner of the globe, enabling us to provide our clients with a clear view of the unique, indigenous consumer perspectives and research climates in each market.

OUR UNIQUE SERVICES

Currency conversion & exchange rate information

- Management of currency conversions and fluctuations
- Consolidated bid and invoice in USD
- Coordination of advance payments to each location in local currency

Managing language & cultural barriers

- Simultaneous translation
- Screener and materials translation
- Advice on local customs, cultural differences and holidays
- Recommendations for local moderators

Experienced project management of various methodologies, audiences and locales

- Ongoing monitoring of procedures and processes throughout the entire study, with emphasis on quality recruiting
- Remote markets as well as large markets
- B to B, medical and consumer research
- Focus groups, one-on-ones, in-homes, shop-alongs, hybrid studies...you name it, we've done it

Managing time zones

- Project managers that cover all time zones so you don't have to
- Optimizing variations in time zones when remote moderating or remote viewing is needed

Focus on the research. We'll do the rest.
